RECITAL AT THOMPSON HOME
DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR.

One of the most delightful events of the early spring was the recital given yesterday afternoon under the auspices of the Study department of the Woman's club of Rock Island, at the home of Mrs. C. L. Thompson on Nineteenth street. The artists, Mrs. Lewis B. Canterbury, dramatic reader, and Miss Frances Liddman, pianist, need no introduction to Rock Island audiences. Their program was varied and gave every opportunity to display their talent. Beside the members of the department, the members of the executive board of the Woman's club were guests, and about 25 ladies enjoyed the afternoon. In the receiving line were Mrs. C. L. Thompson, the hostess, Mrs. A. C. Crowell, the retiring chairman of the department, and Mrs. Joseph Goldsmith, who has been elected to serve next year. Miss Rosabel Stewart and Miss Anna Ralston presided at the punch bowl and assisted in entertaining. After the program a hour of informal sociability was enjoyed, during which members of the department assisted in serving the dainty refreshments. Mrs. Thompson used spring flowers to brighten the rooms.

SOLOISTS FOR ORATORIO, ISAIAH.

Willard Patton, the composer of the oratorio, Isaiah, who comes to Augustana college next Tuesday evening to conduct his composition is bringing with him four of the most prominent soloists of the northwest. The management of the Handel Oratorio society, of Augustana College, under whose auspices the work is given, in completing arrangements with Mr. Patton left it entirely with him to select his own soloists. The critics of the east and west are flattered in their commendation of Miss Martha Cook, the soprano. The Musical Courier, one of the most critical papers, speaks of the "warmth and sympathy of her voice," of the charming personality, of her "musical understanding and of the unusual power of her voice." Mrs. Alma Johnson Porteous, who sings the contralto part has just returned from a year's study with Jean De Reszke of Paris. She has long been acknowledged as one of the leading altos of the northwest. "Heroic ringing quality," "sings in a virile, telling manner. His enunciation is distinct, interpretation excellent." "His effective style betokened careful training and good taste," "his voice is of ample range and full of warmth, and his diction is very satisfactory." These are the press comments on Matthew R. Crawford, the tenor, who Mr. Patton brings. The bass, Francis Rosenthal, is a singer particularly chosen by Mr. Patton to sing the part of the Prophet in Isaiah. He has sung the part on numerous occasions. Mr. Rosenthal has a powerful voice. His enunciation and phrasing are commendable. With the four soloists carefully selected by the composer himself, the interest awakened by the announcement of the giving of the Isaiah at Augustana college becomes keener.

FAE KAE CLUB BANQUETS.

The girls of the Fae Kae club held a most enjoyable banquet last evening at Fejervary park, Davenport. The young ladies, chaperoned by Miss Florence Bladler, of the high school faculty, left for the park in the afternoon. Dinner was served at 6 o'clock and the table was very prettily decorated with the club's colors, brown and yellow. A large bowl of yellow roses formed the centerpiece and at each place were corsage bouquets of yellow roses, as favors tied with brown and yellow ribbons. Place cards bore yellow roses as their design. After the dinner the club enjoyed a theater party, a happy close to the afternoon festivities.

ST. JOSEPH'S SCHOOL PICNIC.

Three hundred and twenty-five children and teachers of St. Joseph's school enjoyed a delightful outing yesterday at the Watch Tower. Three special cars carried the merry throng.

leaving the school at 9 o'clock. Games were enjoyed throughout the day, the rain coming in the afternoon not serving to dampen the ardor of the children in the least. The Sisters of the school and the pupils were very grateful to George Wagner for his generous gift of ice cream. Dean Quinn, providing the cars, and Father Cleary, a treat of cracker jack for the children came in for their share of thanking. The party left the Tower for the return trip at 5:30.

A picnic lunch was served at noon.

The J. U. G. club held the last of the present series of games yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Stella Barnhart in Moline. The club was reorganized with the same ladies as members. ## GRADUATE NURSES ELECT.

The Graduate Nurses of Rock Island county held their annual meeting yesterday afternoon in the Visiting Nurses' room in Moline. Miss Flanagan, visiting nurse of this city told of the work started here and Mrs. J. C. Barnhart of Moline told of the proposed work in Moline, and of the station planned in Prospect park for sick babies. MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) Is it right for a girl of 14 to go out with a boy of 16?(2) Is it right to wear other people's jewelry?(3) My hair is very curly. I want to make it straight. Do you think I should?

ROSY CHEEKS.

(1) As long as you are both sensible and do not permit any foolishness between you, it is a good idea for a boy and girl to be good friends. But consider him as just a friend, my dear, and not a beau. In fact, a boy friend is worth a great deal more to you than a boy beau.(2) No. You are apt to lose or damage it, and then you are resposi-ble for the loss. A girl should never wear a boy's jewelry, nor a boy a girl's unless they are engaged to be married.
As it gives a wrong impression to other people.(3) Curly hair is very pretty, my dear. Why not be contented with the sort of hair God gave you? Keep it clean and well brushed and make it becomingly.Dear Mrs. Thompson: Please tell me if it is right to go to picture shows with a boy?

BROWN EYES.

Picture shows of the right sort do no harm to boys and girls, and if the boy is respectable and your parents approve of your going with him I do not see why you should not enjoy going. Don't stay out late at night, however, as that is never best for a girl's health or morals.My dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) Please tell me how to keep my hair blond.(2) Please give me a good shampoo.(1) If your hair is not naturally blond I do not see how you can keep it so unless you wish to bleach it.
Bleaching deadens the hair and coarsens it. However, when shampooing the hair, you can add a very little peroxide to the last rinsing water, if you wish. This will tend to keep the hair light.(2) I know of nothing better than the egg shampoo. Beat up two or three eggs and rub them well into the hair and scalp. Let them dry in. Then prepare warm (not hot) water, with either a teaspoon of ammonia or baking soda to a gallon of water.
Rinse out the egg in this. Then rinse several times in clear water until all the soil is out of the hair. Brush the hair dry with a clean brush. The day after a shampoo it is a good idea to rub a tiny bit of vaseline or castor oil into the scalp, if the hair is inclined to be too dry.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Can a girl

THINGS WORTH KNOWING.

Popovers should have a hot oven for the first 10 minutes, then slow for 30 minutes.

Dampened soda applied to a sting of any kind will afford immediate relief.

To make good toast on a gasoline stove take an asbestos lid and turn the gasoline low.

Put a pinch of ginger in your yeast.
It will give your bread a better flavor.

THE TABLE.

Baked Rhubarb—Clean and wipe dry enough rhubarb to make one and one-half pints when cut in half-inch lengths. Mix one teaspoon of chopped orange peel with two cups of sugar. Put layer of rhubarb in bottom of asate pan. Sprinkle with sugar, and orange peel. Alternate until all rhubarb and sugar are used. Turn three tablespoons of cold water over top. Bake until tender in slow oven.

Creamed Celery—Clean, wash and boil some stalks of celery and when tender press through a vegetable ricer.
Season well with melted butter, pepper and salt and moisten with cream sauce. Toast thin slices of bread and moisten each with a little hot cream.

clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by druggists under guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the table strength othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.
